

Does your public sector organisation have innovative solutions to high-priority challenges of the present or the future?

If so, submit your achievement to the European Public Sector Award (EPSA), the only Europe-wide award for public sector innovation and reform open to public administrations at all levels of government.

EPISA 2023-24 Deadline extended until 15 November 2023!

Since 2009, EIPA has been organising EPISA to contribute to the agenda of public sector reform and innovation. Awards are a powerful tool to recognise and reward achievements, to drive reform, creative problem-solving and continuous improvement.

The EPISA 2023-24 edition coincides with the European Year of Skills 2023 and, emphasising the importance of knowledge dissemination, was launched under the title

“Boosting Innovation Through Learning”.

Successful applicants can benefit from participating in EPISA in several ways:

- Elevate your profile: gain well-deserved recognition for your work and dedication – applicants will be featured on the EPISA website and various publications; successful projects will be invited to the Award Ceremony celebrating category winners and recipients of Good Practice Certificates
- Foster innovation: share your ideas and initiatives to benefit your organisation and fellow public-sector enthusiasts across Europe – all projects will be included in the EPISA database to serve as inspiration for others to follow in your footsteps.
- Expand your network: join the European innovation community and engage with fellow innovators throughout our knowledge dissemination activities.
- Develop your skill set and help others learn from your success: be invited to EPISA workshops on public sector innovation.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to represent your country in EPISA 2023-24 and to become part of Europe's leading platform for public sector excellence.

It's not too late to spread the word!
